

Announcement:

Toronto, May 15, 2003 - The Robert Mede Gallery is pleased to report the successful conclusion to its fine art photographic exhibition by Jack Gilbert. During the period of the show 63 works were sold. "This undoubtedly was the most successful sale performance of any photographic/art show in Toronto this year" stated Robert Mede "and represents a triumph for the highly imaginative digital works by Mr. Gilbert. This success signals an enthusiastic acceptance and market for this genre of artistically qualified work."

Mr. Gilbert has donated $15,000 of the proceeds from the show to the children's Make-A-Wish Foundation of Toronto.
